Lowcountry Young Professionals plan exciting February 2007

(Lowcountry SC) – The Lowcountry Young Professionals announce their events for February 2007.

February 20 - BASH (Business & Social Hour) 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

One Hot Mama's - Bluffton

- Guest Speaker – Christain Stolf, owner, Torque Athletic Club. He will speak on being a young entrepreneur in the Lowcountry.
- Where: One Hot Mama's - 70 Pennington Drive, Suite 1, Bluffton, SC. There is a $5 cover charge for members and $20 for non-members for all BASH events.

LYP's mission is to foster young professionals' involvement and have influence in shaping and showcasing the Lowcountry region as an attractive choice for young, diverse talent. The group offers an excellent way for young professionals in the Lowcountry to network, socialize and expand their professional horizons.

LYP defines a young professional as an individual who works in the Lowcountry region and is between the ages of 21 and 40. LYP has a 30-member leadership team focused on building the group. The leadership team has been broken into four areas of focus- marketing and membership, professional development, public affairs, and social and event planning.

Also, thanks to your founding sponsors: Beaufort Memorial Hospital, Beaufort Town Center – A 303 Associates, LLC development, Buckwalter Commercial, Hargray, Portrait Homes, and Technical College of the Lowcountry.

If you are interested in joining LYP, please visit www.lypsc.com or email lyp@beaufortsc.org. Last month, the LYPs met at Moondoggie's in Port Royal. LYP's February meeting is on February 20th starting at 5:00 p.m. at One Hot Mama's in Bluffton.
